Hazards

Road crossings. Some walking on lanes and narrow roads without pavements. Some paths are shared with cyclists. Deep water, strong tides, and mudflats close to the route.

There are no stiles or gates less than one metre wide on the route. To avoid steps on the railway footbridge use Sychnant Pass Road and Bangor Road. To avoid a stepped narrow path through Bodlondeb Wood join Marine Walk before the school. Noisy traffic crossing the dual carriageway. Plenty of shortcut options.

Navigation

Following obvious paths and roads.

Terrain

Mostly pavements and roads with some block paving and crushed stone paths which may be muddy in places.
